MEMORANDUM

To: Clergy, Educators, Counselors, Others

Subj: Web Site Support:

Offer: We offer without cost a basic ministry web-site or ministry web-page for adult-students, members of clergy, counselors, or educators who apply to A3CEES programs. This offering is not a factor of the fees or tuition. Therefore, eliminating this service does not eliminate the level of the fees or tuition. The objective is to get the applicant involved in ministry, or to expand ministry for the applicant.

Limit of Support: A3CEES' basic site provides general ministry information. Any content is the responsibility of the adult-student, member of clergy, counselor, educator, or otherwise applicant. This "basic" level service is designed as an initial start-up for the applicant. The basic site includes the following:

- Site title
- Ministry bio and pic
- Mission statement, or ministry perspective
- Contact information
- 2 links to other locations
- Link or links to A3CEES ministries
- url: (initials ministry.org) example:John Doe, jdministries.org or similar.

Additional Support: Persons desiring a more extensive web site can make a request. There will be additional cost for a more extensive site. However, A3CEES is designed to provide the service below market, which still provides the minister or ministry with exceptional support. These services could include, but are not limited to the following:

- URL (e.g., Newministry.org)
- Movies/video
- Flash technology
- Additional Pics
- Course or classes
- Additional links to other locations and sites
- Maintenance/Updates
- Other
- Web consulting on optimizing/increasing visits
- Email address

Editing and Review: As with any provider, A3CEES reserves the right to review any web-site content on A3CEES servers, and makes the final decision on “what” and “how” items or information will be presented. While Christian views and denominations may differ widely, there cannot be any material that reflects negatively upon moral conduct, ethical correctness, or laws and statutes. Spiritual wisdom, and common sense must dictate decisions at all times.

Liabilities: Adult-students, clergy, counselors, educators and others who desire the web support as stated herein indemnify A3CEES and any of its affiliates from any obligations financial or otherwise, liabilities, errors, or omissions and any other are similar or related liabilities from the web site, web page, or pages.

Discontinuance: A3CEES may discontinue the service at any time without written notice, and any decision made by A3CEES is final.

While this is a service that many applicants find useful, it is not our principal focus. Therefore, this service must not, and cannot become a source of complaints and demands. We pray for a great working and ministry relationship with each ministry-associate to the glory of our Lord, Jesus.
